HEAVY RAINS REPORTED. Train of Prospectors Isolated At Small

New Orleans, Aug. 7—Special despatches from San Angelo, Texas, on the Concho river, a tributary of the Colorado, say:

A train filled with prospectors is isolated at a smal station between here and Ballinger, being unable to proceed in either direction owing to bridges and tracks being washed out.

Hundreds of mules, horses, cowacaives, hogs and chickens have been drowned, and many carcasses have floated past here on the Concho. In general, this region of the country is devoted to cattle and sheep raising, with the farm houses located close to the streams, large and small.

The rainfall started early Sunday morning and continped all day without

The water drained into the Concho with a rapidity never known here be-fore, the river rising 30 feet within a few hours. The larger Colorado also made a new record and went 30 feet above low water stage, getting out of its banks at that height and inundat-ing several small towns. The tributaries of the Concho backed up as adjacent farming lands were flooded.

STENS AND IS A FUGITIVE

President Canada.

HIS SON IS UNDER ARREST

Not Even Safety Deposit Boxes Were Spared.

Chicago, Aug. 7.—Theodore Stensland, Vice-President of the Milwaukee Avenue State Bank, was arrested late this afternoon on a charge of violating the banking laws of the State Earlier in the day the institution was placed in the hands of a receiver and Paul O. Stensland, President of the bank, and father of the Vice-President, together with Cashier Hering, were officially declared fugitives from justice and their personal descriptions placed in the hands of the police throughout the country.

Besides the discovery of many irregularities in the management of the bank it was also found that even the safety deposit boxes owned and rented by the bank had been tampered with and rified.

The specific charge on which Theodore Stensland was arrested was that of having accepted deposits at the bank when he knew the institution to be insolvent. The arrest was made in the office of Chief of Police Collins, where Stensland had gone to confer with the head of the police department.

The warrant for the arrest of the

The warrant for the arrest of the Vice-President was sworn out by J. P. Straub, a liquor dealer, who declared that last Saturday he deposited $350 in the bank and that Theodore Stensland as one of the officers of the institution had knowledge then that the bank was insolvent. Later in the day Jacob K. Keern. a former State's attorney, signed bonds for $5,000 for the release of Theodore Stensland.

The promise held out yesterday that the elder Stensland would appear in Chicago today was unfulfilled.

Cashier Hering, sought on a similar warrant, is thought to have reached Canada. The day's developments were likewise productive of the first ray of hope for the depositors who yesterday believed their savings of years were awart away in the wreck.

The affairs of the bank are said to be in an almost hopeless tangle, new iregularities being disclosed as the examiners go deeper into the books. President Stensland loaned money to himself, it is alleged, by having em-

Safety Deposit Boxes Rified.

Specific instances came to light during the day of the looting of safety deposit boxes. One in particular to which the attention of the police was called was that of Mrs. Lydia Herman, who declared that $150 of her funds had been taken.

The whereabouts of Vice-President Theodore Stensland, son of the missing

Theodore stensiand, son of the missing banker, was a mystery to the authorities until late today, when Chief of Police Collins got in communication with him and secured his promise to meet him in Kansas City.

The clearing house committee is sparing no effort to bring the missing President to justice. Handwriting experts, it is said, will be put to work at once on the case to establish the at once on the case to establish the seeming evidence of forgery.

Belief that Stensland has made his escape into Canada is supported by a report from Superior, Wis., that Ser-geant of Police Darwin S. Coon of that city saw the missing banker on a Du-luth-Superior car en route to Superior. Another dispatch from Chief of Polico McKenan, at Superior, tended to show that Stensland made his way to Canada by boat from Duluth. Cashier Hering is thought to have reached the line by way of Detroit.

Stensland Was Wise.

Bank Examier Jones, who closed the bank yesterday, said today that Mr. Stensland surely had guilty knowledge of the looting of the bank. The 22,000 depositors in the bank are gradually losing hope of recovering the $4,200,000 they entrusted to Stensland's care. Detectives are now seeking Cashier Detectives are now seeking Cashler Henry W. Hering, alleged embezzler. Detective Cannon, who has the war-rant for Hering's arrest, charging em-bezzlement, has information to the effect that the missing cashier is in De-troit. "I secured information from re-liable sources that Hering left for De-troit Saturday night," said Cannon to-day. "His destination, I understand, is

There was a crowd of several hun dred working people around the bank this morning. Notwithstanding that the doors were closed, and there was no prospect of recovering funds dur-ing the day, the people persistently re-mained. Their evident misery was ac-mained. Their evident misery was accentuated by a drizzling rain.

Assistant Chi efof Police, Scheutler today personally took charge of the police guarding the bank. He soon sent a requisition to Chief Collins for more policemen. A large number additional were promptly ordered to the Description of Hering.

The following message has been sent broadcast over the country by the "Arrest for embezzlement Henry W

Send all information to Chief Collins."

(Signed) "Inspector Shippy."

The call for additional police was caused by the fear that depositors and their friends would storm the bank and cause a riot when rumors spread that the contents of some of the safety deposit vaults had been tampered with.
Persons with money in the vaults were said to have found their savings gone.
These rumors originated in the butcher shop of Otto Baluria, Marshfield avenue and Cordelia street. Baluria said his sister had $200 in the vaults and when she went to get it the money was gone. Other stories of alleged tamperling with the contents of boxes were passed through the crowd and helped to excite the bank's patrons.

Later Assistant Chief of Police Schuetler with Inspector Shippy and Bank Examiner Jones went to Justice Severson and asked him to issue a warrant for the arrest of President Stensland. The charge in the complaint asking for the issuance of the warrant is fraud. Justice Severson was not inclined to issue the warrant and the three returned to the bank empty handed. It was expected, however, that a warrant would be issued later in the day by Justice Severson or some other justice. Bank Examiner Jones retterated his statement that he could give no estimate of the amount of the shortage.

speculated for Five Years.

It was learned today that the speculations of the bank's funds began before the year 1901. At the beginning of that year a shortage of $250,000 is now said to have existed. It was also learned that Theodore Stensland now holds a power of attorney from his father. The son is said to have been further authorized by Stensland, Senior, to dispose of all property, including real estate belonging to him (the father) in order to make good, as far possible, the speculations.

Members of the clearing house committee expressed their belief today that both Cashier Hering and President Stensland are now in Canada. A rumor today that Theodore Stensland had also disappeared, grew out of his fallure to keep an appointment with officials of the police department, and search for him was begun.

Judge Brentano of the Superior Court today appointed John C. Fetzer receiver for the closed bank. The bill of complaint filed in court alleges mismanagement by officials.

The appointment of a receiver was obtained by two women who hold claims aggregating less than $300. The petition sets up that the two women are depositors; that August 6, the bank was closed and has not opened since; that it may never resume business; that the officials of the bank are not in their places and have departed from the city. The court was informed that the complainants and others are facing the loss of their money in the bank was closed and has not opened since; that it may never resume business; that the officials of the bank are not in their places and have departed from the city. The court was informed that the complainants and others are facing the loss of their money in the bank and that immediate action was necessary to protect them. The court was told that there are more than 20,000 persons who have money deposited in the alleged defunct institution and that most of these creditors are persons of little means and who know little or nothing about business methods.

Charges were made that the officers of the bank have taken little or nothing about business methods.

Charges were made that the officers of the bank have taken with them large sums of money belonging to the institution, and the court was asked to summon them to appear before him in the event they can be found.

Warrant for President.

After further consultation with Assistant Chief of Police Schuetler and Inspector Shippy, Justice Severson decided to issue the warrant for the arrest of President Stansland. The complaint was signed by Bank Examiner Jones, and alleges a violation of Section 25A of the take k act, which refers specifically to receasing deposits after knowledge of insolvency.

The court fixed the bond of Receiver Petzer at $1,090,050.

The Police Department at 12:25 p. m. today sent broadcast throughout the United States a message giving a description of President Stensland and asking for his arrest. The message was as follows:

"Look out for and arrest for violation of the Illinois State banking law.

'Look out for and arrest for viola-tion of the Illinois State banking law, tion of the Illinois State banking law, Paul O. The largest stockholders of the bank met, today and decided that if an assessment is necessary they will be ready to make payment.

ready to make payment.

The Illinois law calls for an assessment of 100 per cent. on all State bank stock in case the assets of the bank are insufficient to meet liabili-ties. This will mean there will be $250,000 cash immediately available to meet the demands of depositors. De-tectives for a surety company are searching for the missing president and cashier. It was said today that the company held a $10,000 bond on Hering which runs to the corporation and not to President Stensland per-

A resolution was adopted pledging to William J. Bryan the support of the Iowa Demograts for the Presidency in 1908. The ticket nominated follows:

Full Ticket Nominated.

Governor, Claude R. Porter; Lieutenant-Governor, John D. Dennison. Jr.:
Secretary of State, J. S. McLuen; Auditor C. E. Munroe: Treasurer I. F. Dan-

Secretary of State, J. S. McLuen; Auditor, C. E. Munroe; Treasurer, I. F. Danforth; Attorney-General, Frederick A. Townsend; Superintendent of Public Instruction, W. S. Wilson; Judges of the Supreme Court; L. M. Fisher and E. M. Carr; Clerk Supreme Court, T. W. Keenan; Reporter Supreme Court, H. M. Parker; Rallroad Commissioners, W. J. Carrenter and E. K. Stool.

M. Parker; Rallroad Commissioners, W. I. Carpenter and E. K. Stool.

It required four ballots to nominate candidate for Governor. John D. Dennison was nominated for Lieutenant Governor by acclamation. Both Porter and Dennison were called before the convention and spoke briefly. Other nominations were made by ac-clamation until Judges of the Supreme clamation until Judges of the Supreme Court were reached. Four names were presented and on roll call B. M. Fisher and E. M. Carr were nominated over E. A. Sager and E. C. Herrick.

The delogates went to work early, devoting themselves in the main to the fight over the nomination for Governor. The so-called conservatives railied around ex-Senator Ball, while the men who three years ago cornered the convention for Hearst railied around John Dennison.

The conservatives turned to ex-Senator Porter as a compromise and then ator Porter as a compromise and then an effort was made to have ex-Con-gressman Wade enter the race. He refused and worked for Ball.

The convention was called to order

The convention was called to order by acting chairman Miller of Waverly. Prayer was offered by Rev. Father Cooney, of this city. Daniel Hamilton was named as temporary chairman. The chairman was instructed to send to William J. Bryan at Venice a message, extending the greeting of Iowa Democrats and "best wishes for a safe journey home." A despatch was read from ex-Governor Boles, who is in Canada, expressing regret at his in-Canada, expressing regret at his inability to be present.

A recess was then taken.

When the convention reassembled, the Committee on Resolutions was still at work on the platform. The Committee on Organization reported in favor of Cato Sells of Vinton for Chairman. He was elected. The Credentials Committee reported that there were no contests.

The platform unanimously adopted demands legislation to destroy trusts, favors rate regulation in Iowa to give rates as low as interstate rates, favors a two cent passenger fare, a State pri-mary law that will protect all parties, election of United States Senators by a direct vote of the people, favors laws to punish corporations for entribution to political funds, expresses sympathy with the political program of national labor leaders, assessment of railroads in Iowa by non-partisan commission. On the tariff and national question

On the tariff and national questions the platform says:

"We believe in tariff for revenue only there should be immediate relief grantd to the people who are now being robbed by extrortionate prices exacted under the shelter of tariff.

"We believe that the people of this country who residues are consequent." country who produce our wealth to pay our taxes to fight the battles of the republic are entitled to purchase the goods manufactured in this country as cheaply as the people who re-side abroad. We denounce the extor-tion inflicted upon our people under the pretense of protection as an out-rage upon the consumer and upon the poor and upon the laboring people who produce the wealth of the country. We believe the tariff should be removed from all trust made goods and in the removal of all duties on iron, steel, lumber and coal.

"We demand the enactment of such legislation as will effectually destroy all trusts and the strict enforcement of all laws concerning the same, and we denounce the executive of the State of Iowa for the failure to en-force existing laws. We favor elec-tion of United States Senators by direct vote of the people. We are in favor of absolute and unqualified Gov-ernment control of interstate com-merce. We are heartly in sympathy merce. We are neartly in sympathy with the purposes of national labor organizations as set forth in the late address of Samuel Gompers, John Mitchell and others calling labor to assert its political rights at the ballot box, and we condemn government by injunction."

The following was added as en-dorsement of William J. Bryan: "We endorse the exated characttr, peerless statesmanship, the high-minded and pure personality of De-mocracy's conceded leader. William Jenning's Bryan, and pledge him our unqualided support for the Presidency nomination the foregoing ticket and adopted the platform in which antiMormonism is the keynote.

WAR AGAINST MORMONS. Democrats of Idaho Pledge Campaign

Against Heirarchy.

Couer d'Alene, Idaho, Aug. 7.—United States Senator Fred J. Dubois, member of Congress, Rees Hatabaugh; Justice of the Supreme Court, Stewart S. Denning; Governor, C. O. After a strenuous two days' convention the Democrats of Idaho placed in died here today.

In accepting the nomination of Senator Mr. Dubois said:

"I can say with perfect truth and sincerity that never in my life was I so proud as I am at this moment. I am endorsed by as splendid citizenship as exists in any commonwealth in the world in making a fight against tyranny, that if unchecked will eventually enable the Mormon Church completely to dominate the affairs of Stafe. My record is an open book. I have never worn the coliar of any denomination or corporation. I ask no one to support me for what I am, but for the principles for which I stand.

"I phophesy that within three years no man in the State of Idaho will have the temerity to stand on a public platform and defend the hierarchy of Sait Lake. It is indefensible. If the Republican Party continues to defend or condone it, it will go down to inevitable defeat. It is even now up against it. The issue is squarely placed before you. Will you support the constitution of your State" If se, will you take the test oath? For ten years there was not a Mormon in the State who would subscribe to that cath. If they take it now they will not be good Mormons. I hope the enactment of such a statute as we contemplate will make them leave the church or force the church to cease interference with politics and desist from the practice of polygamy.

"If, as they say, there is no polygamy, the answer is simple. They need not hesitate to subscribe to the test oath. But what they fear most of all is the law permitting the change of venue in prosecuting them and the law against unlawful cohabitation. Polygamy is the one institution that cements them together.

"Two years hence, when our peerless leader. William J. Bryan, is elected them together.

"Two years hence, when our peerless leader. William J. Bryan, is elected President, we shall have an opportunity to apply all the Democratic principles for the welfare of our country."

Personal Encounter Between Manager and Umpire After Game.

Boston, Aug. 7.—Following today's National League game between Boston and Pittsburg on the South End grounds there was a personal encounter between manager and first baseman Fred Tenney of the Boston team and Umpire Klem.

Tenney accused Klem of neglecting to deliver over to him the balls used in the game which are always considered the property of the local club. He then attempted forcibly to search the umpire's pockets.

An exchange of blows followed and Klem, it is said, threw one of the balls at Tenney, hitting him in the face. Both men bear marks of the encounter which, it is said, will be reported to President Pulliam by the umpire and by the Boston management.

shoot to kill, patrol the four streets that flank the prison.

There have been threats and rumors of threats all day and into the night, but there has been no demonstration, only the general feeling of disquistudand unrest. Crowds thronged the city's streets far into the night, but it is believed the worst is over.

George Hall, the ex-convict from Montgomery County, who is supposed to have led the mob which lynched the three alleged murderers of the Lyerly family last night, is in the jail—theplan to rescue him from the clutches of the law, rumors of which caused Governor Glenn to hurry troops to Salisbury, has not materialized. The surviving negroes, Henry Lee, George Brvin and two women, are safe in the jail at Charlotte, and there is no danger of violence to them. The special term of court which convened to try the victims of mob vengeance, acting under orders from the Governor, will not adjourn until every effort to convict the leaders of the mob has been exhausted.

The case is being worked up and many arrests are expected tomorrow.

The Governor is determined to push the matter to the bitter end. The cases against the surviving defendants, against whom true bills were found, were continued until the regular term of Rowan court. Long before the sun rose, curious persons went to the scene of the lynching and cut off the toes, the fingers and ears of the negroes who were hung to the limb of the big tree on Henderson's baseball grounds. The bodies were badly mutilated before they were removed.
